Dear professor Lim,

Sorry for disturbing you, I connect with you by school email address, but have no reply from you. So I sent this in your personal email.

My name is Haoyu Zhang, my student id: 2018000337. It's my final year in Hanyang University. I've taken additional classes of yours in the past, all of which have been very informative. I'm sending this email because of my final year project.

I'm so interested in the capstone project of the topic of Multiple Object Tracking. I have a few project experiences as follows,

Fall detection (a project for detect the fall down event for the elderly)
Object detection (a project of finding agricultural waste in UAV)
And now I'm doing the face recognition project (a facial recognition machine).

I believe that I have the ability to complete this topic as my capstone project. Therefore, I was hoping you might be willing to become my advisor professor of my capstone project.

Please let me know at your earliest convenience if you would be willing to become my advisor professor. Looking forward to hearing from you, Thanks.

Sincerely,
Haoyu Zhang

Dear professor Lim,

Thank you for replying to my email. And I checked the detail of capstone project again.

I need to get your permission first, whether I have a specific team member. If there are no team member, the office will assign random team member.

Thanks. Regards
Haoyu Zhang
